

Interiors monthly

May 2017

first for furniture, flooring and accessories

Salone
Cream of Milan

Rugs
Heaven sent

Comfort King

With Highgrove AdvantEdge

Love Your Sleep

FURNITURE CARPET RUGS BEDS LAMINATE UPHOLSTERY VINYL ACCESSORIES

REVIEW

Carl Hansen & Son introduced the Botanical and Oceania rug collections, each with two designs by Naja Utzon Popov. Kiri from the Botanical range is pictured with the CH25 chair.

Kasthall developed a three-dimensional technique for tufting its Field and Madison (pictured) rugs, designed by Maja Johansson. Field offers a choice of two stripe widths while Madison offers grids.

Scandinavian shop window

Visitors from more than 60 countries flocked to Stockholm

Republic of Fritz Hansen updated Arne Jacobsen's 1965 Oxford chair, with a revised back and five modern colours

The number of overseas visitors to the Stockholm Furniture and Light Fair (7-11 February) rose 6.5% to 10,000 as the show reinforced its position as the largest meeting place for Scandinavian design. Next year's show takes place from 6-10 February. Visit: www.stockholmfurniturefair.com

Flötotto debuted its first upholstery design: Otto, by Claesson Koivisto Rune. The sofa is available as a two, two and a half and three-seater, with an oiled oak frame.

Maze Interior's Nancy, by Louise Hederström, is a bench made from perforated sheet metal with a naturally tanned leather seat and features two storage shelves

Luca Nichetto combined Swedish and Italian influences for Fogia's Jord upholstery. The base is walnut and the integrated table can have an optional marble top.

Carpet Concept's Eco Cut 4m width carpet or tiles combine the character of a soft loop pile carpet with the design possibilities of flat weaving technology in a choice of two patterns in 29 colours

Steel by Göhlin debuted its first outdoor pieces: Chair No 1 Outdoor and the Saturnus table, with a laser cut pattern on the seat, backrest and tabletop, inspired by nature and the elements, such as the sun, stars and seeds.

Northern Lighting launched the Balancer adjustable floor lamp in powder coated steel designed by Yuue

PHOTOGRAPH: CHRIS TONNESEN

Design House Stockholm's Torso chair, by Lisa Hilland, has a woven leather back, as the design gently flirts with the Swedish craft tradition